

Thinking about becoming a Data Analyst or Statistician? MATH Teacher? Outreach Specialist for Mauna Kea Observatory?

Learn about the MATH courses we will offer in Spring 2018, career options, possible internships and research opportunities, and how to make career choices. Faculty from the UH Mānoa Department of Mathematics will be available for one-on-one advising.

GUEST SPEAKERS:

- 1/ Lynne Wilkens, Specialist, Epidemiology Program / Director, Biostatistics Shared Resources, Univ. of Hawai`i Cancer Center
- 2/ James McKown, Instructor, Institute for Teacher Education, College of Education, UH Mānoa
Linda Venenciano, Associate Professor, Curriculum Research & Development Group, UH Mānoa
- 3/ Alexis Ann Acohido, Media Relations and Local Outreach Assistant, Gemini Observatory / UH Mānoa MATH Undergrad Alumna
- 4/ Special Guest: Heather Saito, College of Natural Sciences Undergraduate Academic Advisor, to talk about the College of Natural Sciences Student Academic Success Center in Keller Hall Room 213

Undergraduate MATH Majors Advising for Spring 2018 Registration

WHEN: *Wednesday,
October 25, 2017*

TIME: 4:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.

WHERE: Keller Hall Room 302

RSVP Required: *Check your "@hawaii.edu" email for the
RSVP Form.*