INSTRUCTOR WAS GOOD. VERY FAST PACED LECTURES - I COULD NOT TAKE NOTES & LISTEN, BUT AFTER READING THE BOOK & HW, I GOT IT.

INSTRUCTOR WAS NOT OVERLY RIGID AND PRESSURING; AND HAS AN OBVIOUS AND PLEASANT PASSION FOR HIS WORK.
VERY GOOD TEACHER!

I think that the way the class was run was alright.
I feel that it could have been run or rather explained better in class. The material was rather difficult and I felt that the TA could have explained and run the class better.

The course is hard (11). Professor Ross is very fair with grades grading. He had always prepared for each lecture. Although I always have a hard time in understanding the materials, his notes and variety of examples really helps me in understanding the course.

- Know what he is teaching
 - Has good knolege of math
- Blocks the way when he writes on the board.
 - Goes to fast

Strengths

I feel that Dr Ross is very knowledgeable with respect to the subject being taught. He is always prepared with a class agenda as well as material to show to the class. Generally he shows concern about our understanding.

Weakness

Too much material too fast. Needs to slow down.
Quality not quantity

TRY TO choose ~~the~~ better examples before the class, so that you ~~do~~ will not get stuck in half way through the example.

Willing to spend adequate amount of time going over problem areas either in class or during office hours.

Generally explains concepts clearly, sometimes seems to go too fast but that may be due to my lack of understanding.

- coverage of material by instructor was okay. He went through a lot of things that I did not deem important to lessons. Should give more examples in class from the text book, so when doing homework, we would know how to do them.
- the t.a. was good, as far as I could tell from the few times that I went. Made material easy to understand when questions were asked.
- too many mistakes in the solutions manual for text. When I was correcting my homework I found many problems and answers don't correspond with each other.

He's an excellent instructor. I found him quite interesting.

He was very clear for me to understand.

His quizzes and exams were graded fairly.

And all in all, I think I learned a lot from this course.

The class was hard, but the grading policy was quite fair I thought. The teacher could have slowed down and explained things a little better. Lectures could have been more interesting.

THE INSTRUCTOR WAS A GOOD TEACHER. HE WAS ABLE TO BE UNDERSTOOD VERY WELL. THE ONLY COMPLAINT I HAVE IS THAT THE GRADING WAS TOO HARD. BE MORE LENIENT ON YOUR GRADING.

Professor Ross is a good teacher. He knows his material very well but covers it at a slightly fast rate. His grading is a bit harsh as far as the partial credit goes but overall he is a fair teacher.

If it weren't for such harsh grading and if the TA could speak a little more clear than the class would be a whole lot better.

Dr. Ross gives the student a good view of the material being covered. He also makes time to meet the student outside of class. He speaks clearly ~~and~~ except for the T.A. who cannot speak English

Liked the grading policy - curve
Too many quizzes - maybe a quiz every other week instead
