Ross is always available during his office hours and through email, and he is very helpful with understanding the material one-on-one.

In class, I get a little lost with what's happening. I enjoy explicit, well explained examples to help "digest" the material. I think making videos for us to watch on his website would be a great supplement.

Special strengths

Professor Ross is a great lecturer and I enjoy coming to class everyday to listen to what he has to say about the material. The lectures are interesting and he is never bland. (I might be biased because I do like math:))

Weaknesses

He sometimes goes off a tangent, but when he does, he talks about other math/natural sciences that relate to what's going on.

This is my second time having Dr. Ross as a professor, and he is one of my favorite professors. He has led our class; his lectures are not only educational, but entertaining and insightful. I believe, even though his classes sometimes go beyond the spectrum of the class, and are very difficult, he is a great grade and has reasonable expectations for his students.

The instructor was very knowledgeable about the subject, very passionate about teaching, but I felt that not enough examples were reviewed.

Please comment below on special strengths and weaknesses of the instructor and the instructor's conduct of the course. Constructive criticism is solicited.

Strengths: Lectures make me feel like I learn a lot
- Didn't feel anything was left out
- Makes sure to go through important topics

Weaknesses: Sometimes is unprepared; certain problems/proofs go incomplete cause he forgot
- How he did them

I liked that Dr. Ross would explain the theory and concepts to us, then did example problems to show us how to perform the computations.

I liked how Dr. Ross selected questions for the midterm.

Very fair with grading homework. Very knowledgeable about content of the course. Need to be a little more organized and prompt with handing back assignments. Should post HW solutions online. Always available to provide assistance.

This is a useful course.
He did his best in explaining the material. Overall, I would recommend this class.
The lectures were much harder than the hw or exams. You would get As on exams but be entirely lost in lecture. Also like majority of my answers were right but was very nitpicky on explanations.

THE COURSE WAS A CHALLENGE! I HAVE TAKEN IT TWICE BEFORE AND THIS WAS BY FAR THE HARDEST TIME. THE BOOK AND WORK WAS A LOT MORE CHALLENGING THAN THE PRIOR SEMESTERS IF IT CONTINUES TO BE TAUGHT LIKE THIS I DON'T THINK IT IS ANYTHING LIKE MATH 371.
