Does a decent good lecturing.

I wish he would bring the material down to a more understandable level. Statistics is a very complicated subject, and I think I would have got more out of the lectures if he would lecture at a level I understand instead of one that's over my head.

The instructor gives a lot of homework.
His exams are quite challenging.
He expects a lot from each of us.

Instructor David Ross

Course and Section no. Math 472 Sec. 1

Please comment below on special strengths and weaknesses of the instructor and the instructor's conduct of the course. Constructive criticism is solicited.

- 1) He really cares about his work and the proper use of Statistics.
- 2) The lectures need ~~to~~ more examples on doing problems. It is a theoretical course, but it would be more helpful ^{to have more problems} especially since some of the models, and the formulas are not things we saw before.
- 3) The tests seem harder than the homework. I think I would rather have the homework problems a little more harder if that is what he expected from us.
- 4) Application of Statistics (?)

Please comment below on special strengths and weaknesses of the instructor and the instructor's conduct of the course. Constructive criticism is solicited.

- A good course
- A good instructor
- The only shortcoming: Never gave an
eg. from communications: A huge number of best applications of statistics lie there.

Please comment below on special strengths and weaknesses of the instructor and the instructor's conduct of the course. Constructive criticism is solicited.

Strengths: Strong knowledge on the subject, and very flexible on the grading.

Weakness: Didn't do enough example. But ~~an~~ other ^{very} than that he is very nice and a easy to talk too if you need help in your work.
