1. A car is heading \textit{away} from a typical intersection at 5 m/s. A motorcycle is heading \textit{towards} the intersection on the other street (at right angles) at 4 m/s. How fast is the distance between them changing when the car is 30 m from the intersection and the motorcycle is 40 m from the intersection? In particular, is the distance increasing or decreasing?